

Places to eat and drink near the convention center during San Diego Comic-Con

SAN DIEGO (KGTV) - When you're walking the streets of downtown San Diego during Comic-Con, you're almost guaranteed to work up a Hulk-like appetite.

Fear not, Comic-Con visitors: We've picked some spots that are walking distance to the Convention Center and offering unique Comic-Con themed specials.

And don't forget: If you're attending the convention, many restaurants/bars are even offering deals or discounts if you simply show your badge!

The Smoking Gun

555 Market St.

<http://www.thesmokinggunsd.com/>

Comic-Conners can head to this unique downtown spot for some comic book-influenced dishes. Dine on the Deadpool Drummettes, the 1/4 pound Captain America Slider and Chips or a plate of the Juggernachos.

barleymash

600 5th Ave.

<http://www.barleymash.com/>

One of the Gaslamp Quarter's most popular hotspots will have a special lineup of cocktails for in celebration of Comic-Con. Stop by for the Pop Tart Party (featuring Skyy Vanilla vodka, fresh strawberry and a Pop Tart rim), the Capri Sun Cooler, or take some Toucan Sam, Cuckoo for Coco and Cinnamon Toast Crunch shots.

Union Kitchen & Tap

333 5th Ave.

<https://www.gaslampunion.com/menu/>

This restaurant/bar is located several yards away from the Convention Center and will be serving breakfast, lunch and dinner, as well as cocktails, for hungry and thirsty visitors.

Tajima East Village

901 E St.

<http://tajimasandiego.com/locations/tajima-east-village>

For Comic-Con week, this ramen spot is serving up a bowl that's an ode to the popular Japanese anime/comic book Naruto called, well, the Naruto Ramen.